

Prescription for a Lukewarm Faith

“I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth.”

Revelation 3:15-16 NIV

Theme: The danger of _____ faith.

Key Thought: The only thing worse than _____, may be a complacent faith.

1. Jesus' opinion may not be what we want to hear but it is we _____ to hear.

Verses 14-18

2. Jesus' purpose for _____ is to restore fellowship.

Verses 19-20

3. Jesus' future _____ calls for faith that takes action in the present.

Verses 21-22
