

The Angel with a Little Scroll

“But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets.”
Revelation 10:7 NIV

Theme: The awesomeness of _____ and the certainty of His plan.

Key: Our God really does have the whole world in his hands and we can _____ him.

1. The angels of God, great and small are his _____ sent to announce and accomplish his purposes.
Verses 1-3a

The bigness of the angel is meant to comfort us with the thought of how much _____ still is our God.

The scroll open in his hand is a reminder of God’s _____ given by God to the prophets and apostles, and open to all to read and comprehend.

God’s angels however great and mighty are sent to _____ his good purposes.

2. The secret things _____ to God and will be revealed in his perfect timing.
Verses 3b-7

The voice of the seven thunders is likely the _____ of God himself (John 12:29; Psalm 29:3-5)

The _____ things belong to God (Deuteronomy 29:29).

God’s _____ can neither be hurried nor delayed (verse 6).

3. What God has made known is not always _____ but is for our benefit and open for all to hear.
Verses 8-11

The open Scroll again is symbolic of God’s written word which has been made _____.

God’s word is not merely to be seen, read and be aware of it, but to be ingested, fed upon and its message delivered through the _____ out book of our lives.

Not all of God’s messages are comforting ones but all are for our _____.

Closing Insights:

1. God has some awesome _____ in his service – and he is more awesome still.

2. There are things that God alone _____, mysteries only he comprehends, and that’s okay.

3. The promise of “no more delay” in verse 6 reminds us that the sufferings of this world are not forever – God’s promises for his people will all be fulfilled in his _____ timing.

4. Not all of God’s messages bring comfort but all are for our good and we should listen to and proclaim the whole of Scripture _____ every part for what it is as God’s sweetly savored word.

5. The message of Revelation and all Scripture is for _____ people and none are exempt from it’s judgments nor beyond the hope of it’s promises.